

Economics and Business Educators NSW (EBE) respects your privacy. Protecting your personal information is important to us.

At EBE we only collect information which is necessary to administer your membership. Information we collect is used to ensure that your status as a financial member is recorded, to send regular mail outs, and to keep you up to date with the various activities provided by EBE and our State and Local Councils including seminars, workshops and conferences.

The membership details are strictly confidential. We do not make them available to any outside organisation or allow any person except the EBE (designated office staff) and members of the EBE (other authorised members of the council) to consult them. Membership forms are destroyed after seven years in accordance with the requirements of the Australia Taxation Office.

As a member of EBE you may ask to see the information held about you.

If you require further information on the personal details that EBE holds and how it is managed, please call (02) 9564 5007 or write to P.O. Box 67 Leichhardt NSW 2040.

If you would like more information about the Privacy Act, you can contact the Federal Privacy Commissioner's hotline service on 1300 363 992 or visit the Privacy Commissioner's website at <http://www.privacy.gov.au>
