IN ASSOCIATION WITH THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY BUSINESS SCHOOL

HSC Business Studies Human Resources (Topic 4)
Information Evening

Wednesday 13th March 2013  5.00 – 7.30pm

The University of Sydney, Storie Dixon Building/Wing, Room 2 – H10 on the map
(behind the Institute Building - H03 on map) Refer: http://sydney.edu.au/maps/campuses/?area=CAMDAR

This information evening will be presented by Will Harvey from The University of Sydney Business School. It will enable teachers of the NSW Board of Studies HSC Business Studies course to increase and update their knowledge of the Human Resources topic. Will Harvey will examine the contribution of human resource management to business performance through examining contemporary business issues and actual business case studies. There will be an opportunity to ask questions. Teachers will return to their Business Studies classroom with an increased understanding of the Human Resources topic which they will be able to pass onto their students, and with new ideas and resources.

Will Harvey – Biography

Will Harvey is a Lecturer in Work and Organisational Studies at the University of Sydney Business School and an Associate Fellow in the Centre for Corporate Reputation at the Said Business School, University of Oxford. He received a first class honours degree from the University of Durham and an MPhil (with Distinction) and Ph.D from the University of Cambridge, where he was a Millennium Scholar. After his doctorate, Will received a Commonwealth and Canadian Government Fellowship at the University of British Columbia and a Research Fellowship at the University of Oxford.

His current work focuses on how companies can build, sustain and rehabilitate their reputations among different stakeholders, with a particular focus on professional service firms. He has also conducted extensive work on the movement and economic impact of highly skilled migrants in different countries as well as the practical challenges of interviewing business elites.

Will has published in the fields of management, sociology, industrial relations and geography in outputs such as the Journal of Management Development, Work and Occupations, Global Networks and Population, Space and Place. He has also conducted consultancy work for Rio Tinto in Madagascar, Mercer in the US, Eni in the Republic of Congo and CRI in China.
