Winner of the 2014 ASIC MoneySmart Week “Education Category - Highly Commended Award”

ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS EDUCATORS NSW in association with THE RESERVE BANK OF AUSTRALIA present

Current Economic Events and Monetary Policy

with Merylin Coombs, Deputy Head of Economic Analysis Department

Tuesday 1st September 2015 4.25pm – 6.00pm

The Reserve Bank of Australia, 65 Martin Place SYDNEY NSW 2000 - Refer to map on website

This information evening will be presented by Merylin Coombs, Deputy Head of Economic Analysis Department from The Reserve Bank of Australia. During this professional development event Economics teachers will be able to gain an update on recent economic events and increase their understanding of monetary policy at the bank that conducts monetary policy, The Reserve Bank of Australia. Teachers will also be able to ask questions during the Q&A session. This will be an excellent opportunity to gain valuable, up to date information to share with your HSC Economics students as they approach the 2015 BOSTES HSC Examination.

About Merylin Coombs: Merylin moved to her current role as a Deputy Head in the Economic Analysis Department, with direct responsibility for the RBA’s regional and industry liaison program, in January 2015. This involves oversight of the activities of the NSW team as well as representative offices in Adelaide, Brisbane, Melbourne and Perth.

Merylin has extensive experience in economics and finance, gained through over 15 years at the RBA and prior to that several Australian Government agencies, including the Treasury and the Dept. of the Prime Minister and Cabinet. Until recently she was a Deputy Head in the RBA’s Financial Stability Department, where she had responsibility for monitoring emerging risks in the Australian financial system. She has worked extensively on international financial cooperation activities, including a secondment in 2012 to the secretariat for the Swiss-based Financial Stability Board. She has represented the RBA on a variety of international working groups with a financial stability and market focus.

Merylin’s professional qualifications include a Bachelor of Economics and she is a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.
