Presented by THE RESERVE BANK OF AUSTRALIA

Current Economic Events and Monetary Policy with

Dr David Orsmond

Wednesday 13th August 2014 4.30 – 6.15pm

The Reserve Bank of Australia, 65 Martin Place SYDNEY NSW 2000 - Refer to map on website

This information evening will be presented by Dr David Orsmond from The Reserve Bank of Australia. During this professional development event Economics teachers will be able to gain an update on current economic events and increase their understanding of monetary policy at the bank that conducts monetary policy, The Reserve Bank of Australia. Teachers will also be able to ask questions during the Q&A session. This will be an excellent opportunity to gain valuable, up to date information to share with your HSC Economics students as they approach the 2014 BOSTES HSC Examination.

Dr David Orsmond - Biography

Dr David Orsmond is Deputy Head of Economic Analysis Department at the Reserve Bank of Australia and heads the Bank's Regional and Industry Analysis Section. Prior to his appointment at the RBA, David worked at the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet in Canberra and at the International Monetary Fund in Washington. From 1999 to 2001 he was the IMF Resident Representative to Ukraine, based in Kiev, where he helped oversee their reform program, and until he left the Fund was the Mission Chief to the Solomon Islands. His publications include articles on currency arrangements, global imbalances, growth in Asia and commodity markets. Dr Orsmond holds a PhD in Economics from Duke University and degrees in Economics from the University of Sydney and the Kiel Institute for the World Economy.
