

A professional development event for teachers of Legal Studies and Commerce

E : BE 2017 LEGAL UPDATE CONFERENCE

Update and deepen your knowledge in relation to the legal issues in the Legal Studies and Commerce syllabuses by hearing from experts in the legal world and legal educators.

Tuesday 28 November 2017, 8.50am – 4.00pm

Venue: NSW Parliament House,*
Macquarie Street, Sydney

 Sponsored by Parliament of NSW
– Parliamentary Education*

Session Presenters –

Judge Roger Dive – Senior Judge, Drug Court of NSW

Kellie Britnell – Program Manager for Outreach and Education at the Office of the eSafety Commissioner

Father Chris Riley AM – Founder & Chief Executive Officer, Youth Off the Streets

Liz Mackinlay, Chair of Mary's House Board & Maggy Farago, Executive Officer, Mary's House (a refuge in the Lower North Shore of Sydney)

Daniela Giorgi, Senior Education Officer, Parliament of NSW

Ken Marslew AM JP AFAIM – Chief Executive Officer, Enough is Enough Anti Violence Movement Inc

See over for full program details and registration form

Economics & Business Educators NSW

ABN 29 002 677 750

An affiliate member of Business Educators Australasia Inc. • Serving members since 1968
3B Smalls Road RYDE NSW 2112 • T 02 9886 7786 • F 02 9886 7673
E admin@ebe.nsw.edu.au • W www.ebe.nsw.edu.au

EBE 2017 LEGAL UPDATE CONFERENCE

Tuesday 28 November 2017, NSW Parliament House, Macquarie St, Sydney

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

8.30 – 8.50	Registration	Networking, Organisation/Publisher Displays, Pick up free resources, Coffee/Tea
8.50 – 9.00	Joe Alvaro Conference Convenor /President, EBE NSW	Opening and Welcome
9.00 – 10.00	Session 1 Judge Roger Dive Senior Judge, Drug Court of NSW	Combining Justice and Treatment Drug Courts are specialist courts that deal with offenders who are dependent on drugs. They emerged as a result of growing disenchantment with the ability of traditional criminal justice approaches to provide long-term solutions to the cycle of drug use and crime. Drug Courts aim to assist drug-dependent offenders to overcome both their drug dependence and their criminal offending. A Drug Court program sees the justice system working hand-in-hand with health and other helping agencies, whereby a comprehensive, intensive program of recovery is supervised by the Court. Drug Courts have been comprehensively evaluated, and found to be both successful in reducing re-offending, and cheaper than gaol. So the Drug Court brings together resources and skills, and assists offenders to move away from drugs and crime. Judicial supervision has been identified as a key component in the success of Drug Court programs. There are two aspects to that role – the judge's role as the leader of a diverse team, and the judge's role in the courtroom and with the participants. Judge Dive will describe the workings of the Drug Court, and the techniques used with participants to assist them in their recovery from long-term addictions.	About the presenter: Judge Roger Dive has been a Judge of the District Court of NSW, and the Senior Judge of the Drug Court, since July 2004. Before those appointments Judge Dive had been a Local Court Magistrate since 1989, sitting in both city and country courts. During his tenure at the Drug Court, the court became a permanent part of the justice system of NSW, and has expanded to three locations. The Drug Court now provides programs for 250 participants across the three centres. Judge Dive held the roles of Senior Civil Magistrate and Senior Children's Magistrate during 15 years on that bench. In the Children's Court, Judge Dive sat in the Care and Criminal jurisdictions, and was very involved with the establishment of the Youth Drug and Alcohol Court. Judge Dive was awarded the 2011 Prime Minister's Award for outstanding contribution to Drug and Alcohol endeavours.
10.00 – 11.00	Session 2 Kellie Britnell Program Manager for Outreach and Education at the Office of the eSafety Commissioner.	Educating for an online world free of abuse Part II (The Individual and the law) of the Preliminary Legal Studies syllabus looks at the issue of the individual and technology. This session will examine the role and function of the Office of the eSafety Commissioner. It will include the government's response to cyberbullying for under 18 year olds and the measures being undertaken to address image-based abuse. This session will include some examples and case studies of the misuse of technologies and the impact on individuals particularly in domestic violence situations.	About the presenter: Kellie is the Program Manager for Outreach and Education at the Office of the eSafety Commissioner. In her former life, Kellie taught Legal Studies, Business Studies, Economics, and Geography – not forgetting her stint teaching the Vocational Education course of Retail Studies. With over 25 years in education, Kellie is responsible for developing, implementing and managing national eSafety related training programs and resources for many audiences, including sporting and community groups, indigenous, corporates, tertiary students, magistrates and law enforcement. Kellie developed the eSafetyWomen workshop on technology-facilitated abuse for frontline workers in the domestic violence space. She also contributed eSafety advice on two expert panel consultations at the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse. Kellie provides strategic advice on new and emerging technology trends related to the government's eSafety responsibilities and is a highly experienced and expert presenter in the field of eSafety, wellbeing, privacy awareness and digital citizenship
11.00 – 11.20	Morning Tea	Networking, Organisation/Publisher Displays, Pick up free resources

E:BE 2017 LEGAL UPDATE CONFERENCE

Tuesday 28 November 2017, NSW Parliament House, Macquarie St, Sydney

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

11.25 – 12.25	Session 3 Father Chris Riley, AM Founder and CEO, Youth Off The Streets	Working with Troubled Kids Father Chris Riley will speak about his organisation “Youth Off The Streets” as a non-legal mechanism. His presentation will be structured around the following Growing Great Kids guidelines: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The worth of a young person is greater than their worst act • Troubled young people are the product of a bad system: poor economic, social, educational and legal conditions that are totally preventable • Criminalising, dehumanising and demonising does not lead to lasting positive change • Treating troubled kids with compassion, giving them responsibility, challenging them, understanding their culture and including them within the community creates meaningful alliances with them, which can produce great outcomes • Adults are responsible for the majority of social ills ascribed to young people • Ignorance, not youth, is our common enemy 	About the presenter: Father Chris Riley AM, Founder and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Youth Off The Streets, has worked with disadvantaged youth for more than 40 years in a variety of roles including teacher, youth worker, probation officer, residential carer, principal and CEO. Father Chris officially founded Youth Off The Streets in 1991. As CEO of Youth Off The Streets, Father Chris oversees the operation of over 35 programs that employ over 200 staff and involve more than 400 volunteers. He has implemented innovative behaviour modification strategies to help young people deal with a history of trauma, abuse and neglect. He has grown the organisation from a single food van delivering meals to young homeless people on the streets of Kings Cross to a major youth specific agency providing a wide range of services such as crisis accommodation, independent schools, residential treatment programs, centres for youth, Aboriginal programs, and early intervention and prevention programs into troubled suburbs through an outreach service. Many of these strategies have been adopted by schools across Australia and by Government agencies. Father Chris believes there is no such thing as a “child born bad”, but acknowledges that there are bad environments, circumstances and families that impact negatively on our young. “We must have the courage to demand greatness from our youth.” Father Chris Riley is the author of the following books: “Mean Streets Kind Heart”, “World Beyond Tears” and “Growing Great Kids”.
12.25 – 1.25	Session 4 Liz Mackinlay Chair of Mary’s House Board Maggy Farago Executive Officer, Mary’s House	Navigating the legal system when you’re escaping domestic violence: the Mary’s House stories This session will provide an overview of the experience of the women coming to Mary’s House, a refuge in the Lower North Shore of Sydney supporting women and their children who need help because of domestic violence.	About the presenters: Liz Mackinlay has over 20 years’ experience in the not-for-profit sector, with extensive senior executive experience internationally and in Australia. She has held roles with a variety of NFP’s including with World Vision International as Global Vice President of Strategy, with World Vision Australia as Director of Indigenous development, International Red Cross Society in Cambodia as a gender specialist as well as serving on a number of NFP Boards. Liz has a passion for community development and community mobilisation, and for developing effective and efficient organisations to facilitate this. She is a specialist in gender equity, disability mainstreaming, international development and reducing violence against women and children and is committed to children’s rights to care, participation and protection. Liz is currently the CEO of Australian Doctors International and a Board member for Reality Learning Ltd, and Chair of the Board of North Sydney Women’s Benevolent Association which trades as Mary’s House. Maggy Farago is the Executive Officer for Mary’s House. She is responsible for all staff and volunteers whilst supporting the Board to implement its strategic direction. Maggy has extensive experience in the homelessness sector and the domestic violence sector having worked with survivors and perpetrators as well as many years managing both large and small teams of case managers and workers in both sectors. She has previous experience in marketing for a global computer company.
1.25 – 1.55	Lunch Networking, Organisation/Publisher Displays, Pick up free resources
2.00 – 3.00	Session 5 Daniela Giorgi Senior Education Officer, Parliament of NSW	Playing Your Part : Education for Democracy at the NSW Parliament Democracy’s success comes through the resilient, intelligent and active participation of a broad base of citizens. Civics and citizenship education is the key to providing the necessary knowledge, skills and attitudes for active and informed citizens. In this session participants will have the opportunity to visit the Legislative Chambers of the NSW Parliament and explore ideas and resources for teaching about the democratic process.	About the presenter: Daniela Giorgi was the Head Teacher History at Hoxton Park HS prior to becoming the Civics and Citizenship Education Officer for the NSW Department of Education. In 2017 she accepted the role of Senior Education Officer for the Parliament of NSW.

EBE 2017 LEGAL UPDATE CONFERENCE

Tuesday 28 November 2017, NSW Parliament House, Macquarie St, Sydney

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

3.05 – 3.50	Session 6 Ken Marslew AM JP AFAIM Chief Executive Officer, Enough is Enough Anti Violence Movement Inc.	Journey Towards Justice This presentation will focus on the reactions of a person to tragedy (victim) and the journey that may be taken to reclaim their life and seek justice within our current legal system.	About the presenter Enough is Enough was formed in 1994 by Ken Marslew following the tragic and violent murder of his son, university student Michael. From this tragic beginning, the seeds of hope were planted in the organisation's mission to reform society's attitudes to violence through education and research. Ken has a pass mark from the University of Life, and appreciates two of the titles he has gathered along the way, 'The Peace Warrior' and 'The Change Master'. Ken is quoted as saying, "Change is the greatest constant we have in life, embrace it with positive intention in every aspect". Ken has a background in sales, marketing and management and in the last two decades, business and people development. Ken has received acknowledgement for his work in community development, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Member of The Order of Australia (AM) 2001• Finalist for Senior Australian of the Year 2010• The Advance Australia Award• Rotary Internationals Paul Harris Fellowship• The Australian Centenary Medal 2001• Australian Heads of Government National Violence Prevention Award• National Crime and Violence Prevention Award And most recently: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Australian College of Educators – Community Service and Social Justice Award• Sutherland Shire Small Business – Most Outstanding Community Service Award Ken has represented the community on the following high profile committees: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Premiers Council on Crime Prevention• NSW State Parole Authority• Attorney General's Victims Advisory Board• Victims of Crime Bureau Interagency• Corrective Services Restorative Justice Advisory Committee• NSW Sentencing Council• Young Offenders Advisory Council• COMPACT (Community Partnership Alliance) on Multiculturalism Ken's great strengths lie in his diverse background, life experience and a determination to create positive outcomes for all he works with.
3.50 – 4.00	Conference Close	Lucky door prizes, Certificates, Evaluation forms

NOTE: The conference begins at 8.50am and ends at 4.00pm. Conference delegates will be required to commit to the whole conference in order to cover all the standards (and thus gain the full PD hours available by participating in the conference) and to receive a certificate.

NSW
EDUCATION
STANDARDS
AUTHORITY

Economics and Business Educators NSW through the Professional Teachers' Council NSW – NSW Education Standards Authority (NESA) as the endorsed provider of QTC Registered professional development for the maintenance of accreditation at Proficient, Highly Accomplished, and Lead levels.

Completing the 2017 EBE NSW Legal Update Conference will contribute 6 hours of NESA Registered PD addressing 3.4.2; 6.2.2; 7.4.2 from the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers towards maintaining Proficient Teacher Accreditation in NSW.

Economics & Business Educators NSW

ABN 29 002 677 750

An affiliate member of Business Educators Australasia Inc. • Serving members since 1968
3B Smalls Road RYDE NSW 2112 • T 02 9886 7786 • F 02 9886 7673
E admin@ebe.nsw.edu.au • W www.ebe.nsw.edu.au

E : E 2017 LEGAL UPDATE CONFERENCE

Economics & Business Educators NSW
An affiliate member of Business Educators Australasia Inc.
Serving Members since 1968
ABN 29 002 677 750

Tuesday 28 November 2017, NSW Parliament House, Macquarie Street, Sydney

REGISTRATION FORM

EMAIL, FAX OR MAIL THIS REGISTRATION FORM TO:

Email: admin@ebe.nsw.edu.au Fax: 02 9886 7673

Economic & Business Educators NSW, 3B Smalls Road RYDE NSW 2112

Contact Details

Name : _____	EBE Member No. : _____
School Name : _____	NESA No. : _____
School Address : _____	Postcode : _____
Phone : _____	Mobile : _____
Email : _____	Fax : _____

Enrolment Details (Prices include GST)

<input type="checkbox"/> places @ $150 each – EBE Financial Member	Total : $ _____
<input type="checkbox"/> places @ $50 each – EBE Financial Member (Concessional)	Total : $ _____
<input type="checkbox"/> places @ $ 295 each – EBE Non-Member	Total : $ _____

NOTE: Enrolments for this conference close on Wednesday 22 November 2017

Payment Details (For GST purposes this form becomes a TAX INVOICE upon completion & payment)

<input type="checkbox"/> Cheque / Money Order for $ _____ payable to EBE NSW	School Order # : _____
Credit Card No <input type="checkbox"/> Mastercard <input type="checkbox"/> Visa : _____	Expiry Date : __ / ____
Cardholder's Name : _____
Signature : _____	Date : _____

* EBE has a privacy policy that endorses the National Privacy Principles set out in the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000. A copy of this policy can be found on our website.

